OUR PHILOSOPHY

Rick Paris - Chief Executive Warrior

I am NOT a hockey coach. I'm an adult recreational player JUST LIKE YOU! And my story is probably similar to yours. I played street hockey as a kid, but I was 30 years old before I strapped on the skates and tried to play organized ice hockey. It was very humbling, and yet so intoxicating. I knew I was hooked for life.

So what made me start this business? Well, first of all, I totally understand what you, the adult recreational player, want. We want the chance to improve our skating, our hockey skills, our positioning and our understanding of the game in a fun and relaxed atmosphere. But just as importantly, we want to do it with our peers, not with a bunch of hot-shot kids. So instead of engaging in grueling off-ice training sessions, when we get off the ice we are more likely to sit down and share a beer with our fellow players, or turn in early to rest our, well, shall we say "fitness-challenged" bodies.

Secondly, I did not want to create a fantasy camp - not in the traditional sense. It's not about meeting famous NHL players. For Weekend Warriors, our fantasy is that we get to play this wonderful game as adults, even though we earn our living in a completely unrelated "arena". For us, that fantasy is a reality.

Lastly, I have surrounded myself with some of the best coaches you will find anywhere. These guys not only understand hockey, but they have a passion for the game. Their passion is contagious, which adds to the fun and camaraderie you will experience. Our coaching is continually cited in our post-camp evaluations as the best part of our camp experience.

I am frequently asked if I go to the camps. The answer is absolutely "Yes". My primary responsibility is to be there to make sure that your experience is the best it can be. But it is also my reward. Organizing hockey camps is not a lot of fun. But meeting the players, hearing your stories, feeling your passion and love for the game - that is incredibly rewarding for me. And that is why I will continue to strive to make Weekend Warriors Adult Hockey Academy the very best hockey camp experience for all of us. You will improve your game, and have a great time doing so.

I guarantee it!
